HIGHTON EMPHATICALLY DE-NIES BEING CALLED NAMES IN HUMPHREYS' OFFICE.

The Sumner disbarment hearing was concluded, as far as testimony is conerned, yesterday afternoon. Henry E. Highton took the stand to rebut some statements made by Humphreys known to kamaninas. and Thompson relating to the various Sumner cases, also the statements of the Ellises that they did not understand the letter read to them in his office regarding the Maria Davis settlement. Highton said that W. S. Ellis translated the letter into Hawalian for the enefit of the others.

Highton was exceedingly positive about one thing and that was that he had never been called the names which Humphreys and Thompson said had been applied to him, in Humphreys' "Those expressions were not used in my hearing," said Highton. There can be no question about that." and he looked at the other attorney with an expression which suggested that there would have been a recordbreaking rough house in Humphreys' office if he had heard the abusive remarks in question.

Humpreys offered to submit the case without argument, remarking that an argument would involve a discussion of his own motives and character, and that he was modest enough not to desire to enter upon such a discussion. Thompson said that he was troubled by no such modesty. He said that the matter was a serious one for himself and his family, and that he proposed to

WIRELESS REORGANIZATION.

The affairs of the Wireless Telegraph Sept. Company are to be reorganized. The Henry Waterhouse Trust Company is attempting the reorganization. The arrangement with its creditors which has existed for the past year ceased with the first of July. The government subsidy of $1,000 a month is not available until certain improvements which will cost considerable money have been put in. The plan proposed is for the trust company to advance the On fixed deposits for 6 months, 31/2 per money required to comply with the terms of the subsidy, and to take over the system, until the advances have been worked out. The improvements Date, include the stretching of a land wire July from Honolulu to the station at Barber's Point and from Mahukona to Hilo. The telephone companies have agreed to allow the use of their poles for stretching the wiresless' wire on. so that the cost of these improvements will be materially reduced.
